GERMANS FAIL IN ATTACKS

Allies Claim Teuton Guns Were Silenced in Artillery Duel

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES

Muscovites Say They Have Captured 11,180 men—Teutons Say They Repulsed Attack.

Paris, Oct. 23—Germans failed in attacks along the front, according to the report of the war office. In some sharp artillery duels the invaders' guns were silenced. The report says:

"In Belgium, in the environs of Lombaertzyde, while the German artillery was shelling our trenches we instantly stopped some preparations for an attack by scattering by our fire the enemy's forces which were concentrating in the neighborhood of our front.

"In Champagne and the Argonne we have mastered by the fire from our batteries the cannonade directed by the enemy against our positions in the neighborhood of Tahure, Massiges, La Harazee and Le Four de Paris."

Petrograd, Oct. 23—Further successes on the southern part of the front are announced by the war office. It is stated that several Austro-German positions and 11,180 men have been captured.

Last night's report from the war office tells of further gains.

Berlin, Oct. 23—Russian attacks northeast, east and southeast of Baranovichi have been repulsed by the troops of Prince Leopold of Bavaria, it is officially announced by the German war office. The capture of 8 officers and 1,140 men is recorded.

The army of Gen von Linsingen has made a general counter attack to the west of Czartorysk, and thrown back the Russians. During the last few days 19 officers and 3,600 men have been taken prisoner in this district, the official announcement adds.

London, Oct 23—There is no inclination in London or in the capitals of the other entente powers to minimize the seriousness of the Serbian situation.

With the fall of Kumanovo, only a few miles from Uskub, Serbia is cut in two, the railroad from Salonika north is no longer available for allied troops, and the occupation of Velez, near Istip, shows that the Bulgarians have swept far into Serbia.

Berlin reports that south of Strumnitza the allies have been driven across the Vardar River, which means a cutting of the railroad near the Greek border.

Rome, Oct. 23—An official statement issued here by the Italian war office says "The offensive successfully begun in the Tyrol and Trentino has been extended all along the line to the sea. Many Austrian positions have been taken."

The statement adds: "On the Carso the enemy's lines have been broken at several points and the enemy's forces annihilated. Twenty-five officers and 1,184 men have been made prisoners."

LATE W. C. BRUIN.

Funeral services for William C. Bruin, were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the pall-bearers being as follows: Dr. W. M. Smith, George St. Clair, Robert Goods, Harry St Brown, Norris Rourk, and Samuel Kelly. The Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of Stfl Paul's Church, conducted the services.

YOUNG MACKEY RESIGNS

Crandal Mackey, jr., resigned as postmaster at Rosslyn this week and a lively canvass is being made by several who want his place. The office is now a presidential appointment and pays $1,200 a year.

Louis Oppleman was fined $100 and costs in the Richmond Police Court yesterday morning on the charge of using loaded dice by which he was able to win $8 in a crap game, from J, F. Howard.

END OF WAR NOT IN SIGHT

Kings George and Ferdinand Issue Appeals to Respective Nations

London, Oct. 22—King George last night issued an appeal to all classes of the British people to come forward and share their responsibility in the war. In the message, which was issued from Buckingham Palace the King said the end of the war was not in sight. The message follows:

"To my people:

"At this grave moment in the struggle between my people and a highly organized enemy, who has transgressed the laws of nations and changed the ordinance that bind civilized Europe together, I appeal to you.

"I rejoice in my empire's effort. I feel pride in the voluntary response from my subjects all over the world who have sacrificed home, fortune life itself, in order that another may not inherit the free empire which ancestors of mine built.

"I ask you to make good these sacrifices. The end is not in sight. More men, and yet more, are wanted to keep my armies in the field and through them secure victory and end during peace. In ancient days the darkest moment ever produced in the men of our race the sternest resolve. I ask you men of all classes to come forward voluntarily and take your share in the fight.

"In freely responding to my appeal you will be giving your support to our brothers, who for long months have nobly upheld Great Britain's past traditions and the glory of her arms."

Berlin, Oct. 22—"I ask the Bulgarian to liberate its native country from Serbia's yoke," declared King Ferdinand of Bulgaria in a proclamation to the Bulgarian people and the Bulgarian army in Sofia, according to the Overseas News Agency today.

After metioning his efforts to maintain peace and carry out his national aims, King Ferdinand says:

"All the powers recognized Bulgaria's right to Macedonia with the exception of Serbia. Serbia in 1913 attacked Bulgaria. Bulgaria will remember that treason. When your king ordered you to furl your flag it was only to await better days. The better days have come. The war is soon going to end. The central powers' victorious armies are advancing in Serbia. Forward, and may God bless our armies."

GERMAN'S ACT SCORNED

Execution Of Miss Edith Cavell Is Denounced By Press of Holland

The Hague, Oct. 23—Indignant over the execution in Brussels of Miss Edith Cavelle, an English nurse the Niewe Courant, after relating the story of her execution, calls her "one of the great martyrs of centuries," but recognizes the fact that, by sheltering her own countrymen, who were enemies of Germany, she committed a punishable crime.

"But the execution was inhuman," the paper declares. "The Germans apparently desired to give a terrorizing example which, however, only aroused embitterment and strengthened the opinion in neutral countries that Germany is ruling Belgium with unnecessary cruelty and harshness."

ALLIES MOVING NEAR SALONIKA

Serbian Capital Said to Have Been Transferred to Kraljevo

TO INVADE BULGARIA

Railroad Bridge Destroyed to Block Allies—Dedeagatch, Bulgar Port Bombarded.

London, Oct. 23. — Heavy movements of allied troops from Salonika toward Serbia are in progress, according to Athens advices today.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The Serbian capital has been transferred from Nish to Kraljevo, according to a Bucharest dispatch today.

Kraljevo is a small town off the railroad, in northwestern Serbia.

The capital's transfer or expected transfer, first to Monastir and later to Prisrend, has been announced previously but in each case it proved that only certain government departments had moved their headquarters. It was stated yesterday that the capital positively would remain at Nish.

Bucharest, Oct. 23.—Russian troops will land on the Bulgarian coast within two weeks, it is asserted here today by one of the Czar's adjutants on his way through Roumania to Serbia.

Athens, Oct. 23.—The Zibecovo-Destovo bridge, on the Salonika-Nish railroad line, has been destroyed, according to a Salonika message today interrupting communication between Greece and the Serbian interior.

London, Oct. 23.—The British Mediterranean squardron bombarded Dedeagatch, the chief Bulgarian port on the Aegean Sea, all day yesterday French warships co-operated further west by bombarding other points on the coast as far as the Bay of Lagos

LAUNCH BLOWN TO BITS

Explosion of 100 Gallons of Gasolin Shakes Town And Injures Four men

Delaware City, Oct. 23J—The 6 foot gasoline launch Natalie, owned by the Coast and Lake Construction Company, of New York, was virtually blown to bits and four men were seriously burned yesterday afternoon by the explosion of 100 gallons of gasoline while the boat was loading gasoline at ...ton street wharf.

Members of the crew were hurled or jumped into the Delaware river and all were badly burned.

In addition to being burned, all were stunned by the explosion, and but for the presence of mind of Henry Bulger, a tug-boat employe who jumped into a row boat and went to their rescue dragging them into the boat, all might have been drowned.

The explosion occurred while the gasoline was being poured into the tanks of the boat, and the cause is not known. The force was so great that the boat was lifted clear of the water and houses in Delaware City rocked on their foundations.

CURRENT TOPICS CLUB.

Organized Under Auspices of Alexandria Kindergarten.

The Current Topics Club, organized by Mrs. Hyde, of Washington, under the auspices of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten, will hold its first of a series of ten meetings Monday night at Lee Camp Hall. The discussions at this meeting will be upon American statesmen and poets.

The season tickets will be $2.00 or any one wishing to attend some of the meetings, can pay a single admission fee of twenty-five cents.

The meetings will be every Monday evening at 8 o'clock at Lee Camp Hall.

FIRE IN WASHINGTON.

Fire on the fourth floor of the plant of the Bedell Manufacturing Company, 638 D street northwest, Washington shortly before 10 o'clock this morning, gutted that floor and ruined the upper part of the building. The damage probably will reach $25,000.

AT THE CHURCHES.

Rev. Robert C. Jett, of Lynchburg, will preach at the morning service of St. Paul's Church tomorrow.

The Rev. W. F. Watson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church will preach tomorrow morning on the subject "Live to Serve." In the evening his theme will be "The Great Physician."

A female quartette will sing at the Second Baptist tomorrow evening, the following being the singers Mrs. Elsum, bass, Mrs. William H. Petty, soprano, Miss Mary Schafe alto and Mrs. Elmer Bellin, tenor.

A the Trinity Church tomorrow morning the Rev. Lyttleton M. Ferguson, pastor, will preach on "The Palm and the Cedar." The Rev. W. L. McDowell, D. D., district superintendent of the Washington district M. E. Church, will deliver the evening services.

The pulpit o fthe Second Presbyterian Church will be filled tomorrow morning by the Rev. W. A. Hall, of Suffolk, Va., who will take for the subject of his sermon, "The Friendly Invitation." Dr. Allison, pastor will preach in the evening on an evangelistic theme.

"Power" is the subject of the Rev Edward T. Kirkley at the Methodis Protestant Church tomorrow morning and "Saved" is his evening theme. The Hustler's Bible Class invite all young and old men of the city to join them on Sundays at 9:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor will be held at 6:45 lead by W. S. Bisdon.

AQUEDUCT BRIDGE HEARING

District Commissioners Have Recommended $1,000,000 for New Bridge

The commissioners of the District of Columbia have recommended in their estmates sent in this week that a new structure to cost not less than $1,000,00 be built to replace Aqueduc bridge. They also have set Thursday, Oct. 28, at 10 o'clock a. m. as a time to hear argument in favor of amending the Washington police regulations so as to allow freight handlers to move a total over six tons across the bridge in one bulk. It is probable if Virgina interests are well represented at the hearing that the rule will be modified and reasonable regulations made for the bridge. If Virginia representatives will move energetically and unitedly, and North Virginia people will show how important they deem better bridge connection with Washington to be, one bridge, and perhaps two, will be provided for at once; also the reservation at Rosslyn will be improved and beautified, and good walks will be built to connect with the Alexandria county system.

LADY MACCABEES.

In Port Huron, Mich., on October 22nd., will be laid the corner stone of the Home Office Building of The Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees. In honor of the occasion, the mayor has declared a portion of the day a holiday and the citizens of Port Huron will entertain many guests from a distance.

The business men there have all arrangements in hand and have assured Miss Bina M. West, the Supreme Commander of the Association, that the day is theirs to show her the appreciation they feel for what she has done for the city and for the cause of woman and protection of the home.

Several new benfits have been added to the association during the past year, thus making the society a most attractive one, and now is a good time to become a member of the Alexandria Hive as the initiation fee has been waived and those joining now can save several dollars.

The Hive in Alexandria is growing rapidly and very pleasant reviews are held twice a month in Odd Fellows Hall, which has been so beautifully remodeled.

Joseph Johnston, 21, son of Walter A. Johnston, Washington attorney, was killed yesterday four miles west of Streator, Illinois, when an automobile in which he was riding with a party of five from Peoria upset in attempting to follow a turn in the road. Seated beside Johnston in the front seat and handling the steering wheel was State Senator John Dailey's daughter, Lucille, 19 years old, fiancee of the young man, who escaped injury as did the other members of the party.

NO HASTE FOR COMMISSIONER

Doherty's Term Does Not Expire Until February 1st, 1916

THREE CANDIDATES

Records Show Men Now Opposing Doherty Endorsed Him for Reappointment Two Years Ago

Richmond, Oct. 23.—Governor Henry C. Stuart indicated yesterday that some time will elapse before he makes known his choice in supplying the several important appointive offices to be filled next February.

The Governor's attention being directed to the controversy going on between conflicting elements in the Virginia Federation of Labor over the respective merits of the several candidates, he was asked when an announcement of the successor of Labor Commissioner James B. Doherty, whose term expired February 1, 1916, might be expected and whether the incumbent would be reappointed.

"I will have to think about it," said the Governor, with an evasive smile. "I don't have to make an appointment until March 1, of next year, do I?"

"February 1, Governor," his questioner corrected.

"Even so. That's quite a long time I have to think. When the time comes I hope to think right," and the smile expanded as he strode away from the executive office.

For several months indorsements from labor unions in all parts of the State and personal letters commending the several candidates—Commissioner Doherty, Howard T. Colvin and M. P. Pace—have been pouring into the Governor's office. The administration of the incumbent has been sharply attacked by the supporters of both Mr. Colvin and Mr. Pace, although neither of those principals has engaged personally in the controversy. Mr. Doherty has been charged by both Colvin and Pace advocates with incompetency and inefficency, and has replied with statements and statistics in refutation. As the argumentative campaign progressed it disclosed evidence of internal dissension in the State union labor organization, which has been seething for two years. The existence of a Socialist element in the State Federation which is opposed to Democratic party government and which on that account, has been exceedingly troublesome, was made apparent.

Friends of Pace and Doherty have made the charge that Colvin is the candidate of the Socialist element, and was before he became a candidate for Commissioner of Labor the secretary of the Socialist Club. In support of the challenge of his democracy the opponents of Colvin point to the exploitation in the last issue of The Square Deal, official organ of the labor unions of Richmond, of which Colvin is editor, of J. N. Doak, Republican candidate for the State Senate in Roanoke. Mr. Colvin to this time has declined to be drawn into any of the several controversies his candidacy provoked. He has the indorsements of about thirty labor unions in the State on file in the Governor's office.

Emmett C. Davison and other prominent labor men in the State are supporting him.

It is learned that Doherty's two opponents are on record as having given glowing indorsements to Doherty when the latter was appointed by Governor Stuart to the office he occupies Colvin, over his signature, represented Doherty as "the choice of the union labor people of the State," for the office, while Davison, in his written indorsement, described Doherty as "the best man in Virginia," for the office. Two letters were written about two years ago. Doherty's supporters, who have copies of those letters, are deriving a good deal of wholesome enjoyment from them while the campaign is waging.

It is not at all improbable that the Governor may go outside of the present field of candidates for a Commissioner of Labor in the event that he decides to not reappoint Commissioner Doherty.

LOCAL BREVITIES

WIRE FENCE SAVES AUTOISTS

Checks Car Which Plunged over Steep Embankment

Hagerstown, Md., Oct 23—A wire fence probably saved the occupants of the automobile driven by D. S. Rector, proprietor of the Pope Hotel here, from serious injury when the machine plunged over an embankment on the State Road east of Boonsboro Thursday nght. The car had stopped at a spring and Mr. Rector and another occupant got out. Mr. Rector than cranked the machine, but before he could get in the car started down the hill, plunged over an embankment and struck a wire fence, which prevented it from landing on the rocks at the bottom. The occupants were badly shaken up.

WAR CAUSES MURDER

Austrian Avenges Brother's Death By Killing Englishman

Denver, Oct. 23—Race hatred stirred up by the European war and resulting in murder led to the arrest here yesterday of George Flaragrady an Austrian, on a charge of killing George Gray, an Englishman.

Both men were employed in a railroad machine shop. The police say they have informaton that Flaragrady upon learning that his brother had been killed by the Allies in Europe became so enraged that he pushed Gray into a powerful drill press where the Englishman was crushed to death.

Robert Black, another shopman who told the police he had been a witness to the murder, was taken into custody with Flaragrady.

AUTOISTS KILLED

Speeding Car Turns Over When It Hits Sharp Curve

Conneaut, Ohio. Oct. 23—Charles Feidler was instantly killed, C. R. Owens was fatally crushed and five other men less seriously hurt, when an automobile in whch they were riding was recked just east of this city early yesterday. All the victims are residents of Erie, Pa.

Going at a high speed on a brick road they did not observe a sharp turn and the car struck the curb, was turned completely over and wrecked.

BOYS SHOT OFF MOTORCYCLE.

One Killed, Another Badly Injured By Police at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 23.— Two policemen shot two boys off a motorcycle in the residence district here yesterday, killing one named Lehr, and probably injuring the other, Arthur Wand, who said he owned the machine.

The policemen said they believed the motorcycle had been stolen.

"I am not a candidate for any public office whatever," said Edwin P. Cox, Speaker of the House of Delegates last night, in Richmond, thus disposing of a rumor to the effect that the Richmond lawyer, who declined to stand for re-election to the House, is an aspirant for the seat in the Corporation Commission, which will be vasted by the expiration of the term of Judge R. Prentis, February 1, 1916.

JUDGE KEITH TO LEAVE THE BENCH

President of the Supreme Court Will Retire Next February

SEVERAL ASPIRANTS

Judges Jesse Felix West, F. W. Sims and Attorney Thos. R. Keith Among Candidates

Richmond. Oct. 23—Judge James Keith, president of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, has announced that he will retire from the bench at the expiration of his term—February 1, 1917.

"There comes a time in every man's life." said Judge Keith, discussing the matter in his office, "When a man is too old to do his work properly. I have not yet reached that period, but when my terms expires my intention is not to offer for re-election. Whether I shall open a law office I do not know. I am neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet. What I shall do when I retire from the bench must be determined by circumstances."

Judge Keith has been on the Supreme Court bench continuously since March 1870. He has written some of the most important opinions handed down by the court and is regarded as one of the most able supreme court judges in the United States.

It was said by Judge Keith's friends some time ago that the judge might be forced to retire by edict of his physicians. The judge makes it plain, however, that his health had nothing to do with his decision.

While no candidates have yet announced themselves to succeed Judge Keith—this being the first announcement of Judge Keith's decision—it is understood that at least three candidates will shortly be in the race. They are Judge Jesse Felix West, of Sussex county; Judge F. W. Sims, of Louisa, county, and Attorney Thomas R. Keith, of Fairfax.

Though Judge Keith's term does not expire until February 1, 1917, the next Legislature will have to elect his successor, since no regular session of the Legislature will be held in 1917.

Judge Keith's successor will be elected for twelve years.

When Judge Joseph L. Kelly was elected to the Supreme Court bench at the last regular session of the Legislature, Judges West and Sims were candidates, running second and third respectively.

Attorney Thomas R. Keith has never offered as a candidate, but should he desire the place he will have strong backing, it is said, and will be a formidable candidate.

The terms of the other Supreme Court judges expire as follows:

Judge Richard H. Cardwell, of Hanover, February 1, 1923.

Judge Joseph L. Kelly, of Bristol, February 1, 1927.

Judge George M. Harrison, of Augusta, February 1, 1919.

Judge Stafford G. Whittle, of Henry, February 1, 1925.

In a general way the Supreme Court judges are elected from the five grand geographical divisions of the State. Judge Keith's home is in Fauquier. Those familiar with political conditions believe that the Legislature may be inclined to favor the candidacy of an aspirant from that section of Virginia now represented by Judge Keith. This does not mean, however, they say, that a candidate from another section may not be elected, for after all the individual qualifications of the candidates will be of first consideration with the Legislature.

COUNTY WINS VERDICT

Superintendent of Schools, Hodges Must Pay Back $970 and Interest ..

The long fight by Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey and the Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county to recover $1,800 claimed to have been paid Wm. T. Hodges, superintendent of schools, illegally, was decided by Judge Thornton at the opening of the October term of the court, Monday He gave judgment against Mr. Hodges for $970 with interest from July 1, 1913, together with costs of the suit. He also enjoined the school boards and trustees from paying counsel fees or any increased salary in future. The remaining $870 claimed for the people was covered by the statute of limitations the protection of which was invoked by counsel for the defense, Judge Wm. C. Gloth, and James R. Caton, of Alexandria, when the case was argued several weeks ago. The statute is inteded to cover cases where the facts have become obscured and doubtful by loss of testimony or absence by death or otherwise of important witnesses. Except for this statute the whole amount $1,800, with interest, a total of $2,200 nearly, would have been added to the school funds, barring successful appeal. The total actually ordered restored ratably to the District board funds is a little over $1,100.

The defense noted an appeal.

In delivering his opinion, Judge Thornton said the legislature never intended that the school boards should appropriate for the superintendent of schools any money as salary or otherwise. The men who composed these boards are named by School Electoral Board, of which the Superintendent is an influential member, and they can be dismissed by the Superintendent whenever he can get one of the other two members of that Board to vote with him. They are to an extent therefore the creatures of his will and ought not to have power to give him the public money. An analogous case, the judge said, was that of the Commissioners of Accounts appointed by the Circuit Judge It would be manifestly bad policy to empower these commissioners to increase the judge's salary. He furthermore condemned the system by which the Superintendent of Schools participates in the selection of school trustees. He thought these officers should be elected by the people or appointed by the Board of Supervisors. The present system might lead to serious abuses of power or to bad management of the school moneys.

He did not mean, however, that these observations should apply particularly to the present case, but to the law generally and the interpretation.

Adult Bible Classes of Various Churches Invited to Attend Monday Night

The First Baptist Church was filled again last night by a congregation which has manifested much interest in the evangelical services which have been conducted in that church during the present week. Rev. O. W. Triplett, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, occupied the pulpit and preached from the ext, "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near."

The speaker urged those who have not surrendered to Christ to seek the Lord now. He claimed the words of the text contain an earnest entreaty rather than a command of God.

A short conference of personal workers was held after the services. The pastors will preach in their own churches tomorrow and will resume the union services next Monday evening.

There were two conversions announced last night.

The adult Bible classes of the various Sunday schools are invited to attend Monday evening, and a gallery will be reserved for them.

GLOTH REAPPOINTED

Trial Justice Was Former Football Star of University of Virginia

William C. Gloth, trial justice of Alexandria county, has been reappointed by Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of the circuit court of Alexandria county, for a term of two years commencing January 1st. 1916. Justice Gloth was appointed to the bench a years ago to fill the unexpired term of Trial Justice R. Gordon Finney, who resigned in order to become candidate for the position of Commonwealth Attorney which will be filled at the election to be held on November 2nd.

Justice Gloth is a graduate of the University of Virginia and a former football star of that institution. He has been practicing law in Alexandria county for the past ten years.

WILL RENEW FLAGSTONES.

Are Again Taken From English Quarries and Used at Mt. Vernon.

Flagstones from quarries in England, which will be used on the east porch of the Mt. Vernon mansion, have arrived at that place and will be placed in position soon.

The present flagstones, which have been in position since the mansion was built, came from England. They have been greatly worn and are now practically useless for the purpose intended to serve, hence it was decided to obtain similar flagging if it could be had.

Supt. Dodge finally succeeded in locating flagging of a similar pattern, said to be from the quarry whence the original stone came.

Mr. Warfield, who is connected with the First National Bank of this city is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warfield. Mr. and Mrs. Warfield will make their home in this city.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rogers, of North River, N. Y., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Oct. 13 when their youngest daughter, Miss Myrtle Emma Bennett, and Claude Osborne Thomas, a well known young attorney of Alexandria county, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Ward of North Creek, N. Y., The bride looked very sweet and lovely, dressed in a handsome gown of white charmeuse, trimmed in lace and cut pearl, carrying a bridal bouquet of white roses, and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Hunt Roberts and Mr. Allan Roberts entertained informally last night, first on a straw ride and later at dancing at their home in Duke street extended, the following being among the guests: Misses Isobel Boswell, Sarah Cox, Hilda Schneider, Marie Gasson, Julia Hopkins, and Messrs. Charles Carlin, Albert Bryan, Chester Pierce, Edward Pierce, and Tupper Barrett. The chaperone was Miss Chinn.

Miss Constance Bouse entertained informally at a tea yesterday afternoon from three to five in honor of Mrs. Wigmore of Benvenue, Mrs. Hardie, Gunston Hall and Mrs. Whon. Assisting Miss Bouse were Mrs. Klipstein and Mrs. John Leadbeater. A number of guests called and the affair was one of the most pleasant of the early autumn season of social functions.

The Senior and Sophomore classes of Alexandria High School will be the guests at a masquerade party to be given Friday evening, October 29, by the Junior class at the school building.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day. N. C. 123

WARNING TO FRESH GIRLS.

Automobiles and motorcycles are causing much woe in this world. Accidents, many horrid, are being multiplied daily. They are terrors in rural districts, where they often make turns in roads, while running at high speed, scattering pedestrians and sometimes injuring or killing such as fail to get out o ftheir way They are called "red devils" and devices of Satan by some of the sufferers. The larger percentage, however, of mishaps are caused by reckless driving or by inexperienced persons, often young girls, who become helpless in emergencies, and who would profit by reading the sad story of Phaeton who had the temerity to enter Apollo's chariot and attempt to drive the sun across the heavens.

It is not the accidents, however, which are occuring so often that we desire to call attention to, but the danger which besets thoughtless girls and young women who often accept invitations from unknown men to accompany them in rides in automobiles and on autocycles.

The following appeared in the Baltimore Sun this morning:

Accused of criminal assault on two young girls—one not yet 16 years old and the other less than 17—Joseph Nechamkin, 22 years old and John R. Beck, 20 years old, were committed for the action of the grand jury of Baltimore county by Justice Powell, at the Canton Police Station, yesterday afternoon. The magistrate held the two without bail.

The accusers of Beck and Nechamkin are Gertrude Rehberger, 16 years old, and Tina Ksizak, 15 years old.

The two girls estified they were returning to their homes on Saturday, August 14, from a visit to an aunt of the Rehberger girl and flirted with Nechamkin and Beck, who were riding tandem on Nechamkin's motorcycle. Nechamkin and Beck invited the girls to get into a sidecar attached to the motorcycle.

"Tina and I got in the car," testified the Rehberger girl, "and the motorcycle went toward the city as if to turn down Ellwood avenue, as we had requested. But they went to Linwood avenue and then rode fast up Linwood avenue toward Baltimore street and the Philadelphia road.

"We cried they weren't taking us home, and they said, 'We know were not'. And we said we would jump out, but they said, 'There's one in the hospital now for jumping.'

"I started to scream, but he (Nechamkin) reached over and held his hand over my mouth, and they were going so fast that we soon were some distance out the Philadelphia road. It was dark and lonely and there was no one around and no houses.

"They stopped the machine and threatened to abandon us, and Nechamkin took me by the arm and pulled me up the road about half a block. I told him I was a good girl ,but he said, 'I don't care.'"

The witness told of screaming, but that Nechamkin overpowered her. The Keizak girl said she heard Gertrude scream and ran up to help her when Beck seized her and overpowered her.

JUDGE KEITH TO RETIRE.

Judge James Keith of the Supreme Court of Virginia announces that he will leave the bench next February. The Judge says he feels that he is growing old. He does not, however, say his physical condition has anything to do with his purpose.

Judge James Keith has been a member of the Virginia judiciary continously since 1870. He was for some time Judge of the Circuit Court of this district and was a familiar figure in Alexandria. The Richmond Times-Dispatch speaking of Judge Keith's purpose to retire says:

His career as a lawyer was brilliant, while as a jurist he is regarded as one of the ablest judges the Circuit Court bench in Virginia has known. Since his elevation to the bench of the highest court in the State, his career has been even more distinguished. He has gained a national reputation through opinions written by him and handed down by the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia.

Judge Keith was born in Fauquier County September 7, 1839, and was reared in the county. He took his law course in the University of Virginia under John B. Minor.

Enlisting as a private in the famous Black Horse Cavalry in 1861, he rose to the rank of adjutant of the Fourth Virginia Cavalry in 1863. He rode with Payne, Wickham and Fitz Lee, "followed the feather" of Jeb Stuart on many a field, and saw his last service at Appomattox Courthouse in the cavalry charge that drove Sheridan back nearly two miles, and was not halted until the Army of the James, under General Ord, was encountered and the Confederates were compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources.

CRIME OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

Miss Eliza Van Lew is famous in Richmond history. She was about the only woman of prominence in Richmond during the civil war known to be in active sympathy with the Federals. There was strong suspicion that she sent information to the Federal commanders whenever she had an opportunity and that she assisted actively in the escape of Federal officers from Libby Prison.

The Richmond Journal in comparing Miss Van Lew to Miss Cavell, the English nurse, recently executed by the Germans, says:

Suppose—if it is not sacrilege to suppose such a possibility—Miss Van Lw had been taken by the Confederate authorities, tried by a drum head courtmartial and led out to be shot; and when she fell fainting from fright and agitation, suppose a Confederate officer had stepped deliberately to the senseless form and sent a bullet from his pistol through her brain. We can imagine the thrill of horror and fury that would have gone through his country, through the Confederacy as well as the Union. Yet, fifty years after our civil war, when the world is supposed to have made some advance, an officer of a nation boasting itself to be the most civilized and advanced in the world commits a crime of that kind, his victim a nurse in the hospitals, whose gentle ministrations had comforted Germans as well as other soldiers, whose offense was that she had aided the Belgians in escaping their own country to join the ranks of the allies.

This butchery of Miss Cavell will cost Germany more even than the butchery of the women and children of the Lusitania. That act cost her the friendship and roused against her the hate of the richest and strongest of all the nations. The murder of Miss Cavell will mean the death of many a German soldier. It has resulted already in rousing the English people from lethargy and stimulating enlistment.

ENGLAND'S SACRIFICES.

King George has issued an appeal to his subjects to come forward voluntarily and aid Great Britain in her fight against the Germanic allies. "More men, and yet more," the monarch says, "are wanted to keep my armies in the field and through them to secure victory and an enduring peace."

While echoes of this appeal from the throne are reverberating through out the empire the announcement is made that the British casualties, published since October 1, total 2,285 officers, and 50,072 noncommissioned officers and men.

These figures show an average loss to the British army of nearly 2,500 men a day. These casualties reflect the heavy losses of the British in the recent severe fighting in Belgium. During the summer the losses averaged about 1,500 daily. In April and May, when the heaviest fighting at the Dardanelles was in progress the daily average was about 2,000.

REVOLUTION WILL NOT DOWN.

The attention of the United States authorities has been directed to agents of Villa who are in Washington and New York attempting to raise money for the purpose of keeping up chronic revolution in Mexico.

A message, said in El Paso to have been received in Juarez, is quoted as stating that Felix Diaz has joined the Zapata forces and is now at the head of 40,000 men, with whom he is menacing Mexico city.

It was hoped that after the Carranza government had been recognized by the United States and South American republics that the end of disorder in Mexico was near. Unfortunately, however, it seems that we have merely been enjoying a lull in the revolutionary movements. The followers of Villa and Zapata are not disposed to allow any one but themselves rule in the land of the Montezumas.

A SENSITIVE SOUL.

(Philadelphia Ledger.)

A minister must be very careful in choosing his words if he is to give no offense to any of his flock.

In a certain congregation there was a dear old lady who loved flowers and who had a beautiful garden. Each Sunday it was her bouquet that adorned the pulpit. She was especially fond of sweet peas, and she once brought them for several Sundays in succession. Suddenly other flowers appeared. The minister noticed the change and after the service asked the old lady why she brought no more sweet peas.

She smiled sadly and answered: "You don't like them. Last Sunday you pointed right at my sweet peas and said, 'God loves even the meanest flower that grows.'"

NEWS OF THE DAY

A dispatch from Zurich says that riots occurred at Bucharest Tuesday by interventionists who stoned the windows of the German Embassy.

The British submarine campaign against German shipping in the Baltic is being carried on actively. The sinking of four more German steamships is reported.

Attorney General Gregory, informed President Wilson yesterday the Villa junta in Washington and in New York had obtained funds to finance another revolution in Mexico.

Dr. William G. Damm, one of the oldest physicians of Cumberland, Md., was found guilty of manslaughter yesterday for having caused the death of Mrs. C. Lee Sutton, of Thomas, W. Va., by a criminal operation.

As a result of the lynching of Leo M. Frank, who was kidnapped from the State prison, at Milledgeville, Ga. on the night of August 16 last, five of the guards and deputy wardens have been discharged and another has resigned.

According to dispatches from Christiania, the Russian port of Archangel already has been closed by ice. If this be true, Russia will be deprived of this means of bringing in supplies, unless the ice breakers are able to work successfully.

The new budget, which provides for a supertax of 50 per cent on the profits of all British companies, already has caused the removal of the United States of the headquarters of several companies representing South and Central American gold mines.

The Greek Minister to England held a conference yesterday afternoon with Sir Edward Grey in London. No statement was issued at the conclusion of the meeting, but the impression prevails that the Greek diplomat told Sir Edward that Greece would not accept the offer of Cyprus by the allies.

Rumors are circulating throughout Liverpool commercial circles that Eugene Sandow, the famous athlete and instructor, whose establishment in the west end of London used always to be crowded with fashionable young men, had been shot as a spy about a fortnight ago at the Tower of London

Much damage was done at Ostend on the Belgian coast, in the recent bombadment by British warships. The Maritime Railway station, the lighthouse and the Hotel des Thermes, a favorite haunt of German officers, were destroyed, the newspaper states The Kursaal and warehouses in the city were destroyed.

Mrs. Katherine Kuffler, 30 years old, was murdered yesterday morning near Washington, by Benjamin Shreve 65 years old. Shree an iceman, who had annoyed Mrs. Kuffler with attentions later killed himself. Mrs. Kuffler, a famous stage beauty in Budapest before her marriage, was the wife of Armin Kuffler, a young patent law clerk.

A detachment of forty-six Mexican soldiers was waylaid by Yaqui Indians in Sinaloa on Thursday and forty-four of them were killed. The bodies were piled upon a wooden railroad bridge and all were burned. The Indians are now reported to be moving upon the United States Sugar Company plantations at Aguila with the object of looting them

A representative of the Amsterdam Lokal Anzeiger at the Serbian front telegraphs that the desperate resistance of the Serbians is responsible for the relatively small number of prisoners taken by the Austrians and Germans. "Serbian troops rarely surrender, even in hand-to-hand encounters," the correspondent says. "They fight until the last possible moment. Thus there are enacted in these battles horrible scenes of the wildest fighting, unparalleled on any other front."

The Novoe Vremeeya of Petrograd prints an interview with the Rouman ian envoy. He emphatically states the army and the nation are wholly on the side of the allies and is convinced Roumania will shortly abandon her neutrality. "We are almost ready," he said, "and can reckon on an army of 600,000, which can be increased to 1,100,000. As to munitions, our war office has already adopted appropriate measures. "In the defiles of the Carpathians an army of 320,000 is concentrated."

The Amsterdam Telegraaf states that the Germans executed a French woman, Mlle. Louise Frensy, at Liege, two weeks ago. It is asserted the firing squad carrying out the execution purposely aimed low and hit the woman's legs. The officer then shot her through the head with his revolver. "The same thing happend in the case of Miss Cavell," says the Telegraaf, "She was fired on by a party of twelve but only one bullet touched her, but did not kill her. It was after this that the officer of the firing party drew his revolver and putting it to the woman's ear fired. A priest who was present at the execution was overcome by horror and is now suffering from a nervous breakdown."

VIRGINIA NEWS

Senator Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, acompanied by Mrs. Swanson, are in Washington where they will remain until the next session of Congress adjourns.

Henry Kirn, a millionaire trucker and one of the greatest organizers of farmers in America, died at his home in Norfolk a few days ago. He was 81 years old. He was a native of Germany, but came to this country before the civil war. He made his start by selling farm products to Union soldiers when they occupied positions along the James river.

The one hundred and twenty-eighth annual session of the Synod of Virginia, Southern Presbyterian Church, which met in Charlestown, W. Va., Tuesday, closed yesterday. The final session was devoted chiefly to the reports of various committees. Memorial services for ministers who have died since the last meeting were held. Lexington, Va., was chosen as the next place of meeting.

A banner crop of corn has been raised in Virginia this year, according to G. W. Koiner, State commissioner of agriculture. "Virginia has grown a bumper crop of corn this year," says the commissioner "exceeding by something like 23,000,000 bushels that grown last year." Mr. Koiner the explained that the corn crop in Virginia this year was estimated by the government to reach 63,000,000 bushels, as against 40,000,000 for last year. The commissioner was also of the opinion that the Virginia apple crop for 1915 would command unusually good prices before Christmas.

Definite announcements are expected within the next three or four days regarding the proposed acquisition of the Tredegar Iron Works in Richmond, and the contemplated purchase of Belle Isle by Pittsburg steel interests. It is said that the option is held by neither Schwab nor United States Steel representatives. Since both the Schwab and United States Steel interests have been in the market for steel plants it is said that representatives of both are considering the purchase of the Tredegar option. One of the most interested bidders on the Tredegar option, it is said, is the American Locomotive Works.

Police detectives of Richmond are working energetically today to apprehend the murderer of W. R. Hamilton, formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., whose dead body was found this week by boys in woods west of the city. He had been dead several days. When last at home, he had $60 in his pockets. This money and his watch the murderer had stolen. Despite the robbery, the ferocity with which Hamilton was slain, has caused the police to consider the revenge theory. The man was brutally clubbed, stabbed and choked by his assailant. Hamilton's daughter, Mrs. Bertha Nemis, who kept house for him in Richmond is unable to clear the mystery.

An ornamental iron hatchet was dredged from the waters of a Chesapeake Bay tributary in Mathews county about ten days ago by W. S. and James R. Gwynn, while they were tonging for oysters at a depth of fifteen feet, The hatchet from the inscription and decorations, is commemorative of the inauguration of George Washington as president of the United States. It is about fourteen inches in length, with the head of the first president moulded in the iron head of the weapon and the inscription "Washington Inaugurated President of the United States ——, 1789." It can barely be seen from the rust, and some of the words are partly effaced. No one seems to know just how old is the hatchet or has seen one like it, although it is said that it may probably be a souvenir of the Philadelphia centennial in 1876.

TUNING UP FOR TOKIO.

Men at Arlington Confident Of Sending Wireless Phone Message to Japan.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The powerful wireless station at Arlington, is now being "tuned up" to talk with Tokio. It is the hope and expectation of the experts before long to girdle the globe with the wireless telephone.

Radio experts are enthusiastic over the future following their successful transmission of the human voice from Washington to Paris and to Honolulu at the same time, as was done in the experiments of Thursday night. The practicability of talking with the Orient without a relay a Honolulu was declared today to be unquestioned.

Preliminary to obtaining that accuracy of adjustment that will be required in communicating with Tokio direct, the experts are arranging to open up communication from this city with the Government's wireless station at Cordova, Alaska. As transmission across water is attended by fewer difficulties than over land the first attempt to reach Japan and China by wireless phones probably will be made from the Alaska station.

The distinctness with which the voice speaking in Washington Thursday night was heard by the operator in Honolulu leads the experts to believe that the bridging of the 11,000-mile stretch between Washington and the Orient is only a question of mechanical adjustment and attuning their instruments to the nicety of absolute perfection. Experiments with this end in view are to be conducted without interruption until the desired result is achieved.

MACHINISTS ON STRIKE

Cleveland, Oct. 23.—The biggest of the recent series of machinists' strikes in this city came yesterday when 1,000 employes of the Peerless Motor-car Company laid down their tools upon orders of John Luthringer, national organizer of the union.

The strike comes, union officials say because demands for the eight-hour day and other concessions had been refused. The Peerless Company has been building large consignments of automobiles for war orders. The company is a member of the National Metal Trades Association and the strike here is the first attempted in any of the plants of that organization

The company will have the support of this association, according to Philip Frankel, secretary of the Cleveland branch, who said the fight will be carried to the end.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake is Made by Many Alexandria Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache.

To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys you must set the kidneys working right.

An Alexandria resident tells you how.

Mrs. W. A. Waring, 304 north Patrick Street, Alexandria, says: "I suffered awfully at times from my back and inflammation of the bladder. I used to be in such misery during these attacks that I had to have injections of morphine to relieve the pain. My back ached so badly that I thought it would kill me. The kidney secretions caused me terrible suffering and the pains in the top and back of my head nearly drove me insane. I often got so dizzy that I could hardly keep from falling and I felt sick all over. Nothing did me any good until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. S. Leadbeater's & Son's Drug Store. The first box gave me great relief. I used several boxes altogether and they stopped that awful pain in my back and head and made my kidneys normal. Since then, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills as soon as I have noticed any signs of kidney disorder and they have never failed to give me quick relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Waring had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

EDISON TRIUMPHANT

This week—Oct. 18 to 23—is a week of celebration for the master inventor's greatest achievements.

Complete triumph in just ten months over the tremendous difficulties of New Jersey's greatest fire.

The country is bowing to Mr. Edison's greatness. One of the greatest of all his inventions—his pet and hobby—the one to which he has given most of his time—is the Diamond Disc Phonograph.

Hear the New Edison—not how perfectly it reproduces the artist's music—human, lifelike, natural. It is the laboratory recreation of music as opposed to manufactured music; the musical instrument as opposed to the talking machine.

SPECIAL CONCERT TODAY

We have arranged a special concert for today—a splendid Edison Week Program, 4:30 to 5:30. Come and hear this choice program of the world's best music. Note how the distinctive tone is preserved. No mechanical timbre. The artist is before you in all but form. No charge for seats. Judge Mr. Edison's greatest triumph for yourself.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1914, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 46, Article IV, of the Constitution.

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section forty-six of article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly, after the first under this Constitution, shall continue longer than sixty days; but with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Except for the first session held under this Constitution, members shall be allowed a salary for not exceeding sixty days at any regular session, and for not exceeding thirty days at any extra session. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates, and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly shall continue longer than ninety days, except that with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place, not for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house; and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b and c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal; provided further, that no bill which creates or established a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge or inakes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.
